

Narrative pattern from Monomyth model based on A-Ma story

a)

b) In the story, the main character is A-Ma a young, underprivileged girl who becomes a goddess. What makes her interesting is her transformation from a humble, overlooked and indifferent girl into a powerful, spiritual and revered figure. Even though she got rejected by the wealthy people, she remains kind and gets help by a poor fisherman, showing that goodness can come from unexpected places. Her mysterious disappearance and reappearance as a goddess makes her an intriguing protagonist and adds a magical element to her character, highlighting themes of humility, kindness, hope, protection and divine power.
